

First Spanish port Terminal operator which main function is to load/unload containers, needs for the Engineering and projects department a Simulation Engineer.

Detailed functions for this job will be:

- Creating simulation models using Witness software.
- Obtaining, updating and maintaining machinery work cycle's data.
- Developing the operational ratios to be applied to the models.
- Following up civil works and installation jobs supporting other areas in engineering.

Mandatory residence in: Great Britain / Ireland / Spain. Available to change residence to Barcelona.

Minimum Requirements:

- Minimum studies: Technical Industrial engineer.
- Minimum experience: 1 year.
- Young 23 to 27 years old.
- Knowledge of AutoCAD.
- Advanced knowledge in Ms Office.
- Experience in simulation programs (Witness, Arena, and/or Taylor).
- Knowledge of programming languages (C++, Visual Basic).
- Creative person, dynamic, and willing to professionally grow.

Desired Requirements:

- Additional training in logistics and knowledge in civil works.
- Analytic person used to work within a team.
- English native language. High Spanish level.

Contract:

- Undefined.
- Complete.

To take part into the selection process, please send C.V. to the attention of Miss Gemma Ciruelos to email address gciruelos@tcbcn.com or by fax to +34.93.329.5036